

Membership Term

Any member may resign from the association by submitting a written resignation to the Executive Director. Such a resignation shall be effective as of the date received by the association unless it specifies another date.

The Board of Directors may recommend in writing to the membership that any members be expelled from the association for conduct contrary to the objectives of the association.

After giving the member an opportunity to be heard as to the reasons why he or she should not be expelled, the membership shall vote on the question of whether the member shall be expelled. A two-thirds affirmative vote of the members present shall be necessary to expel a member.

Any member who resigns or is expelled shall forfeit any and all rights and privileges in the affairs and/or property of the association, including dues already paid. Any member who resigns or is expelled shall remain liable for any dues or other charges due and owing at the time of his or her resignation or expulsion. Section 10.

Membership may be forfeited for failure to pay dues within sixty (60) days after the beginning of the fiscal year.
